The Story of Babar

Featuring the music of Francis Poulenc, one of France's greatest composers, this show presents the story of the famous King Babar, as written by Jean de Brunhoff.

A storyteller, a pianist and colourful scarves capture the adventures of the little elephant while presenting an evocative array of musical forms. Touching and moving, this performance introduces young students to various musical forms such as lullabies, waltzes and polkas.

MAXIMUM: 200 students ONE PERFORMANCE: (40 minutes) $895 + HST

Also available: Workshops (to follow performance)

Babar in music: Invent a new Babar adventure and create a sound story!

Babar on stage: Students will build their own puppet versions of Babar, Celeste, Arthur or any other elephant from the Story of Babar.

MAXIMUM: 30 students Two 30 minute sessions: $150 + HST

TOUTOU

Available: April 9 – 12, 2018

Lost between the streets and the river, between day and night, between the earth and the moon, Toutou has epic adventures! Lost and hungry, he just wants to go home. He moves closer and closer to returning home as the seasons go by. Without the support of two awkward machinists who are always willing to help, Toutou would never find his way! Without words, through puppets, voice and clown, TOUTOU explores the themes of friendship, hope and courage.

MAXIMUM: 200 students

ONE PERFORMANCE: 40 minutes + 15 minute Q & A $895 + HST
