

Testimonials – MASC Young Authors and Illustrators Festival 2018

“Everyone attending is so thankful for this festival.... Take pride in fueling Canada’s next generation of young authors and illustrators. I had a great time today and dearly love this festival.”

“Thank you so much for the privilege to attend this amazing event. I cannot express how grateful I am for this magnificent and joyous event. Thank you!”

“I had such a fun time at this amazing festival. It is so cool how much you can learn just from 1 day of fun and interesting activities. It is truly life changing to go to this program.”

“This is the one day each year I feel like my creativity gets unleashed! Every single author and illustrator are so amazing and each have their own style and story to share!”

“Thank you very much for this amazing event! I’ve done it for three years, and every year it keeps getting better. I can’t wait to see what kind of authors and illustrators are going to be there next year. They really inspire me to keep writing about what I love.”

“I’ve been here before and I just had to come back. I love it here. I really want to become an author when I am older and I have learned so many tips. One of the best days of my life.”

“I had an amazing time here. The authors are extremely nice and are truly into helping young authors pursue their dreams. Please, for the good of future authors, never stop doing this festival.”

“It was very exciting and fun to meet the authors and illustrators. I can’t wait to sign up next year! I absolutely love this event. Thank you!”

“I had another amazing year at MASC! My authors were both phenomenal! MASC always gives me tips and inspires me to be a better writer. Till next year!”

“Thank you so much. I adore MASC. All the authors and illustrators are so supportive and give great tips. MASC has changed my life in a way I will never forget.”

“Thank you so so so much for making this possible! I have about a hundred-kagillion words to describe how grateful I am and how amazing this is but I’ll only write a few. Social - Inspiring - Awesome - Lively – Beautiful.”

“It was amazing. I would definitely tell this to others. I wish everyone could have this experience!”
