

MASC Young Authors & Illustrators Festival
Nurturing creative talent for 29 years

Schedule of Events

* During the Master Classes, students will work with the same published author or illustrator for both sessions. The presenters will talk about the creative inspirations behind their books, provide demonstrations or readings from their work, and offer tips and tricks of the trade. Students will engage in hands-on creative exercises and will leave with the start of their very own literary creations.
