- ▶ Artist to provide simple procedure outline to ensure 2 metre distancing is respected.
- ▶ MASc will provide the venue with all details such as, location of the activity (indoors or outdoors), artist and technical requirements and MASc COVID 19 protocols.
- ▶ The venue will provide MASc with details such as, contingency plan for weather conditions, and relevant participants mobility and cognitive abilities.
- ▶ Both artist and venue agree to communicate prior to the activity to confirm all details including expectations of interaction.
- ▶ All performances and workshops delivered in school or community settings, must take place in the presence of a person in position of authority.*
- ▶ Please be mindful of the time and be ready 10 minutes in advance of the activity
- ▶ All content delivered in the workshops and performances is protected under Canada's Copyright Act. The reproduction of any material without prior permission of the artist(s) may fall into a violation of such law.
- ▶ Photos and recordings of the activity are only allowed with both the artist's and organizer's permission.
- ▶ Please read the Cancellation Policy if you need to cancel.

Code of conduct

Any communication between the artists and participating minors outside MASC activity is not permitted unless supervised by a person in position of authority*

Respect the MASC artists, staff, and fellow participants at all times.

Bullying, profanity, harassment, and discriminatory language or behaviour are strictly prohibited.

If a participant does not respect the code of conduct, the person in position of authority * is required to take action, including removal from the event if necessary. If the situation continues, the artist has the right to cancel the event, at which point, no refund will be provided.

We kindly ask you to fill out the evaluation form, which will help us to develop projects that fulfill your needs and expectations.

We look forward to sharing our passion for the arts with you.

Definition:
